

Michael Tavel architects specializes in urban residential mixed-use environments including architecture, town planning, and sustainable design, and poetic, sophisticated, and sensitively-designed architecture and urbanism.

David Kahn Studio provides mixed-use and commercial landscaping design and master planning.

333 West Colfax Avenue #500
Denver, Colorado 80204
Office 303/825-7475
Fax 303/825-7341
www.mbcdenver.com

MB Consulting (MBC) was established in 1998 with a vision of streamlined branding, marketing, and public relations services in an increasingly competitive investment environment.

ActNeutral provides solutions for carbon-constrained markets. Focusing on renewable energy and energy efficiency platforms, ActNeutral works with developers, investors, and regulatory agencies to create economically viable systems that reduce environmental impact.

Sustainably Built

High Performance Home Consultants

Sustainably Built utilizes precise computer modeling to predict energy loads in the design stage to reduce or eliminate energy costs.

CTC GEOTEK

CTC-Geotek, for over 30 years has been providing consulting engineering services to the real estate development, construction and design industries in the Denver Metro area, Colorado Springs, in the Rocky Mountains and across the Front Range.

Major Geothermal provides "one stop" shopping. It provides initial heat load evaluations to the complete ground heat exchanger and equipment specification. Its product line is inclusive, from pipe to thermostats.

Beaudin Ganze Consulting Engineers, Inc provides mechanical, electrical, lighting, sustainable and technology engineering services

Big Horn Builders builds energy efficient, high performance, and environmentally friendly homes and additions in Boulder County. It specializes in design and construction that is easy on the planet and healthy for your family.

PCD Engineering designs and implements collaborative engineering solutions that produce high performance, energy efficient commercial and residential buildings. It adds value by applying solid engineering, technical and financial principles and a thorough understanding of customers' objectives to craft solutions that positively impact productivity, health, comfort, the environment and the bottom line.

Studio NYL, a dynamic structural engineering design practice based in Boulder, provides knowledge of multiple global construction technologies and techniques, and structural engineering services.